

A Statute of Anne

The Statute of Anne, the world's first copyright law, gives rights to authors.

Date: _____

B Plagiarius

The Roman poet Martial calls a copier a plagiarius, Latin for kidnapper.

Date: _____

C The DOI

The DOI system begins, giving every online article a permanent link.

Date: _____

D Plagiarism

Playwright Ben Jonson brings the word plagiarism into English, meaning literary theft.

Date: _____

E The Pinakes

Callimachus writes the Pinakes at the Library of Alexandria, a 120-book list of Greek writers and their works.

Date: _____

F Author and year

Harvard zoologist Edward Laurens Mark uses author and year in brackets, the start of the "Harvard" style.

Date: _____

G AI references

Studies find AI chatbots invent between 11% and 57% of the references they give.

Date: _____

H Glosses

Scribes write small notes, called glosses, around the main text of manuscripts.

Date: _____

J Shared rules

The Chicago Manual of Style (1906) and the first APA guidelines (1929) set shared rules.

Date: _____

K The footnote

Pierre Bayle's dictionary begins the modern footnote, used to show proof.

Date: _____

1 Around 250 BCE

The Pinakes

Callimachus writes the Pinakes at the Library of Alexandria, a 120-book list of Greek writers and their works.

Conversation

2 1st century CE

Plagiarism

The Roman poet Martial calls a copier a plagiarium, Latin for kidnapper.

Credit

3 Medieval period

Glosses

Scribes write small notes, called glosses, around the main text of manuscripts.

Checking

4 1601

Plagiarism

Playwright Ben Jonson brings the word plagiarism into English, meaning literary theft.

Credit

5 1697

The footnote

Pierre Bayle's dictionary begins the modern footnote, used to show proof.

Checking

6 1710

Statute of Anne

The Statute of Anne, the world's first copyright law, gives rights to authors.

Credit

7 1881

Author and year

Harvard zoologist Edward Laurens Mark uses author and year in brackets, the start of the "Harvard" style.

Conversation

8 1906 and 1929

Shared rules

The Chicago Manual of Style (1906) and the first APA guidelines (1929) set shared rules.

Conversation

9 2000

The DOI

The DOI system begins, giving every online article a permanent link.

Checking

10 2026

AI references

Studies find AI chatbots invent between 11% and 57% of the references they give.

Checking

A Statute of Anne

The Statute of Anne, the world's first copyright law, gives rights to authors.

Hint: 18th century

B The DOI

The DOI system begins, giving every online article a permanent link.

Hint: 21st century

C AI references

Studies find AI chatbots invent between 11% and 57% of the references they give.

Hint: 21st century

D The Pinakes

Callimachus writes the Pinakes at the Library of Alexandria, a 120-book list of Greek writers and their works.

Hint: 3rd century BCE

E Author and year

Harvard zoologist Edward Laurens Mark uses author and year in brackets, the start of the "Harvard" style.

Hint: 19th century

F Plagiarism

The Roman poet Martial calls a copier a plagiarium, Latin for kidnapper.

Hint: 1st century CE

Spot the claim

Name _____ Date _____

Highlight the 4 claims in the paragraph. Use the key below.

-  ? Yellow: needs evidence A fact or number that needs a source
-  " Pink: quote, needs marks Someone's exact words
-  ✓ Green: common knowledge Most people know it, no source needed

Libraries are places where people can borrow books. Around 3,000 public libraries are open in the UK today. One librarian said libraries are "the living room of the town". Reading for fun can help children learn new words.

Practice text: not from a real publication. No highlighters? Underline and write Y, P or G above each claim.

Which claim would you most want to check, and why?

Spot the claim

Name _____ Date _____

Highlight the 7 claims in the paragraph. Use the key below.

- ? Yellow: needs evidence A fact or number that needs a source
- " Pink: quote, needs marks Someone's exact words
- ✓ Green: common knowledge Most people know it, no source needed

Most students sit exams at the end of a course. Revising in short bursts works better than one long session. One teacher said revision is "like training for a race, not a sprint". Around 40% of students say they feel stressed before exams. Sleep helps the brain store what you learned that day. Water boils at 100°C at sea level. A 2021 survey found that phone use before bed cuts sleep by about 30 minutes.

Practice text: not from a real publication. No highlighters? Underline and write Y, P or G above each claim.

Which claim would you most want to check, and why?

Spot the claim

Name _____ Date _____

Highlight every claim. Then, for each yellow claim, suggest the type of source that would back it up.

- ? Yellow: needs evidence A fact or number that needs a source
- " Pink: quote, needs marks Someone's exact words
- ✓ Green: common knowledge Most people know it, no source needed

Most students sit exams at the end of a course. Revising in short bursts works better than one long session. One teacher said revision is "like training for a race, not a sprint". Around 40% of students say they feel stressed before exams. Sleep helps the brain store what you learned that day. Water boils at 100°C at sea level. A 2021 survey found that phone use before bed cuts sleep by about 30 minutes.

Practice text: not from a real publication. No highlighters? Underline and write Y, P or G above each claim.

For each yellow claim, what type of source would you look for?

- 1 _____
- 2 _____
- 3 _____
- 4 _____

Peel Lesson 1 exit ticket

Name _____

1. What did the Latin word plagiarious mean?

2. Give one reason we reference, with an example from the timeline.

3. Write one question you have about how to reference.

Peel Lesson 1 exit ticket

Name _____

1. What did the Latin word plagiarious mean?

2. Give one reason we reference, with an example from the timeline.

3. Write one question you have about how to reference.

Peel Lesson 1 exit ticket

Name _____

1. What did the Latin word plagiarious mean?

2. Give one reason we reference, with an example from the timeline.

3. Write one question you have about how to reference.

Peel Lesson 1 exit ticket

Name _____

1. What did the Latin word plagiarious mean?

2. Give one reason we reference, with an example from the timeline.

3. Write one question you have about how to reference.
